Business Analyst – OP0968-01

Are you in Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Chile, or Costa Rica? Join us as we actively recruit in these locations, offering a comfortable remote environment. Submit your CV in English, and we'll get back to you!

We invite a proactive and flexible Business Analyst with an extensive technical background and a solid understanding of the support functionalities to join our team. You'll be applying your knowledge and skills to help define new and refine the existing activities of the team; lead business processes following strategic goals and stakeholder requirements. Contribute to the development of the platform that provides an integrated and customizable payment solution designed to automate and simplify invoicing for merchants.

What's in it for you:

Join a team with an excellent and supportive work culture; thrive in a professional environment that enables every member to grow and achieve their best

Advance your English skills through daily spoken and written communication with English native speaker colleagues

Is that you?

3+ years' experience as a BA/Product Manager

Experience with creating product/feature roadmap

Solid theoretical and practical knowledge of BA methodology and tools (good understanding of every stage of SDLC)

Experience with Kanban/Scrumban methodologies

Experience with task-tracking systems, collaboration, and modeling tools

Upper-Intermediate+ English level (written and spoken)

Experience with SQL queries (e.g., "JOIN operator")

Fintech domain knowledge (experience with payment systems)

Knowledge of the Client-Server architecture

High-level knowledge of API structure

Desirable:

Experience with requirement preparation for 3rd-party integrations

Expertise with the US payroll and tax market (or keen interest in the matter)

Technical background (understanding of Git Flow, infrastructure)

Experience as a Support Analyst

Key responsibilities and your contribution

For this role, you'll need excellent analytical and communication skills to be able to explain complex concepts in simple words to crucial stakeholders on the client's side and the team. Communicate with the stakeholders, PO, and development team to prepare and streamline requirements for the project

Coordinate team's activities during team meetings (daily, retro, planning, etc.)

Design roadmap and schedule for product development

Create and maintain technical and business documentation, specifications

Coordinate and overview a wide range of activities for the Support team
