Description

IFC — a member of the World Bank Group — is the largest global development institution focused on the private sector in emerging markets. We work in more than 100 countries, using our capital, expertise, and influence to create markets and opportunities in developing countries. In fiscal year 2023, IFC committed a record US$43.7 billion to private companies and financial institutions in developing countries, leveraging the power of the private sector to end extreme poverty and boost shared prosperity as economies grapple with the impacts of global compounding crises. For more information, visit .

The Country Office for the Southern Cone (CASAR), covering Argentina, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay, is based in Buenos Aires and is part of IFC's Latin America and Caribbean (LAC) Department. CASAR plays a central role in the functioning of IFC's matrix organization to bring regional information and perspective to IFC decisionmaking. CASAR is responsible for: (a) leading the formulation of IFC's regional strategy; (b) monitoring and communicating IFC's project pipeline, portfolio performance and strategy implementation in the countries covered; (c) monitoring political, macro-economic, sectoral and financial market developments, and keeping senior management informed of these developments and potential impact on IFC's activities and strategies; (d) maintaining dialogue with governments, locally based stakeholders, and other parts of the World Bank group, (e) coordinating the investment services (IS) and advisory and upstream services program in the region in collaboration with Regional Industry Departments; and (f) contributing substantially to business development.

To fulfill this role, CASAR is seeking an Operations Analyst to be based in Buenos Aires, Argentina and who will report directly to IFC's Senior Country Manager for the Southern Cone. This is a local hire Term Appointment with an initial duration of three years subject to renewal.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Create financial analysis models and support structuring of new investments in collaboration with industry teams.
- Extract data on the sub-region such as Investment, Advisory and Upstream portfolio, development impact and pipeline from internal databases and other internal sources. Manipulate and present the data in a variety of formats for a variety of audiences to a high degree of accuracy and consistency.
- Update and maintain internal databases; be the 'go-to' person for program data and other research and operational support for and from the sub-region.
- Stay abreast of current investment and advisory operations in the sub-region and respond quickly to queries from WBG management on these operations.
- Perform analytics on markets, company performances, portfolio and other data.
- Contribute up-to-date program and country/market data to World Bank Group strategic documents such as Country Partnership Frameworks, Progress and Learning Reviews, and Completion and Learning Reviews.
- Conduct industry and market research and assist in IFC's business development efforts.
- Participate in other aspects of IFC's project processing cycle as needed, including conducting integrity due diligence.
- Prepare management briefs, reports, presentations and country economic updates.
- Elaborate pitchbooks and presentations for external stakeholders and clients.
- Help coordinate collaboration with other World Bank Group institutions (IBRD, MIGA, IDA, ICSID).
- Other tasks that may arise in the day-to-day department's workload.

Selection Criteria

- A bachelor's degree from a renowned university preferably accompanied by a Master's degree in Finance, Business or Management, and enrollment in the CFA program are advantageous qualifications.
- Minimum two years' work experience in banking or consulting in a fast-paced, knowledge-based work environment.
- Demonstrated quantitative, financial analysis and modeling skills.
- Sound numerical, analytical and conceptual skills encompassing finance, investment, portfolio management, corporate finance and economics.
- Sound business judgment.
- Excellent Excel, PowerPoint and database skills.
- Ability to conduct research, synthesize data and provide recommendations.
- Strong attention to detail and quality.
- Familiarity with IFC databases and applications would be an advantage.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills in both English and Spanish.
- Strong client service orientation with openness to feedback and new ideas.
- Ability to manage and complete multiple projects simultaneously and to meet deadlines under high pressure.
- Proactive – initiative-taker.
- Strong team skills with the ability to work across organizational boundaries with ease.
- Keen interest in emerging markets and multicultural environments.
- Willingness and ability to travel on short notice as required.

The World Bank Group offers comprehensive benefits, including a retirement plan; medical, life and disability insurance; and paid leave, including parental leave, as well as reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.
